

HER BETROTHED A MARRIED MAN.

So Says Miss Callins and Sues for Breach of Promise, but Mr. Whitney, the Defendant, Denies Engagement.

A man's treachery, a jealous woman's revenge and an interrupted trousseau, these are details alleged in the sensational development of Miss Margaret Callins's love affair, which she says has broken her heart.

Oliver B. Whitney, a wealthy promoter, with offices in the Park Row Building, is the alleged cause of Miss Callins's unhappiness. A handsome Harlem matron made the disclosure which shattered her dream of love.

The denouement of the complicated drama is a suit for $25,000 damages in the breach of promise action which Miss Callins has brought through George M.
Osgoodby, of No. 171 Broadway.

"Mr. Whitney gave me every reason to believe he was a single man," said Miss Callins. "I met him when I came to New York, a stranger, from Pennsylvania, a year ago. I am a stenographer and had letters to prominent firms. I was looking for an address when I was approached by a handsome elderly gentleman who offered to help me find my place. I was impressed by his kindness, and later he asked me to go to luncheon. We became quite friendly, and dinner and theatre parties were frequent. I became very fond of him and had every reason to believe he loved me, for the proposed marriage and the wedding was to take place at Christmas time."

Wedding Dress Was Being Made.

Miss Callins says her trousseau was ordered. The wedding gown was in progress when there came an awful revelation. A woman called one day with the announcement that she had a sensational disclosure to make.

"Mr. Whitney is a married man and has a wife and children in Marlborough, N. Y., a village just north of Newburg," she said.

The letter found in Mr. Whitney's pocket, Mrs. Osgoodby says, was the cause of the woman's visit to Miss Callins.

"The woman is in love with Mr. Whitney," the lawyer declared.

Miss Callins, who has removed to Brooklyn since the breaking off of her engagement, is an unusually handsome woman of twenty-five. She is a devoted brunette with large dark eyes and beautiful features.

"Mr. Whitney is a handsome man of venerable appearance," said Lawyer Osgoodby. "I had a hard time serving the papers on him, for he seemed aware that something was in the air.
He was reported not to be at his office.
Constable Benjamin Martin finally served papers on Mr. Whitney at his home at Marlborough two days ago.
Since Miss Callins has removed to Brooklyn the suit was brought there.
Mr. Whitney was not at his office at the Park Row Building to-day, but an emphatic denial that he ever promised to marry Miss Callins comes from him at Marlborough."

MRS. GEORGE LAW UNDER KNIFE FOR APPENDICITIS.

MRS. GEORGE LAW.

Operation Performed To-Day on Millionaire's Widow, Who Is Resting Comfortably.

Mrs. George Law, widow of George Law, the millionaire, and well known in the smart set, was operated on to-day for appendicitis.
Dr. Bull performed the operation, and Mrs. Law is resting comfortably.

WOULD DIVORCE PARKHURST MAN

Wife of Edgar A. Whitney, Formerly Superintendent of Society for Suppression of Vice, Seeks an Absolute Decree.

Edgar A. Whitney, whilom superintendent of the Parkhurst Society, whose curiosity led him to the "divorce court" to-day, where his wife, Nettie S.
Whitney, was asking for an absolute divorce, was made to stand up by her counsel, ex-Congressman J. J. Walsh, that she and her witnesses might identify him.

Whitney was Superintendent of the Parkhurst Society during the days of the Lexow Committee. He was the right-hand man of John W. Goff, Frank Moss and Mr. Jerome, counsel to the committee, afterward made Recorder, Police Commissioner and Justice of Special Sessions respectively.

Mrs. Whitney testified that their second child, born during the session of the Lexow Committee, was christened Lexow Whitney. She charged her husband with deserting her for Mrs. Pasco, with whom he lived from 1901 to April, 1902.

Mrs. Margaret Roberts testified that Whitney paid the room rent of Mrs.
Pasco in her house for a week, and was a nightly visitor, and Alex. W. Wood, superintendent of the Justice, Westchester Court, and owner of the house No. 18 Audubon avenue, testified that Whitney and Mrs. Pasco lived in his house four months until he found out their relations.

Justice Fitzgerald reserved decision.
Whitney, after he was deposed by the Parkhurst Society, went into business as a "welder" on a large scale, taking care of men's clothing. He had a store in Harlem.

EX-TEACHER WANTS DIVORCE AND SCHOOL

Sues to Be Freed from Mr. Meyers as a Preliminary to Regaining Job as Instructor.

As a preliminary step in an effort to get back her place as a teacher in the public schools, Mrs. Della Meyers, who surrendered her place in the classroom to get married to Louis Meyers, in April, 1899, asked Justice Fitzgerald, of the Supreme Court, through Samuel D.
Lasky, to-day for an absolute divorce.
They have no children, and Mr. Lasky adduced testimony upon which rested the claim that Meyers, since October, 1902, had been living in Baltimore, where the attraction that lured him from his teacher bride was a young woman named "Frieda." He is living at No. 220 Harrison street and did not offer any opposition.
Decision was reserved.

ACHING KIDNEYS.

Premonitory Symptom
of Serious Trouble.

Use of Remedies Containing Alcohol Is Suicidal.

Every year the demand has been for a more effective kidney remedy.

The public no longer has any patience with so-called kidney remedies that, at best, only possibly delay the progress of disease. The demand is for a remedy that can point to men and women in every neighborhood that it has cured of severe kidney disease.

The startling statement published recently by the newspapers throughout the United States that Dr. Pettigill's Kidney-Wort Tablets have again and again demonstrated their ability to cure men and women of Bright's disease and diabetes, is being daily reasserted by physicians. It is a fact, and can be proved to the satisfaction of any sufferer who will take the pains to test the wonderful specific.

The signs of threatening kidney trouble are pains in the loins and regions of the kidneys and headaches; there is often constipation, feeling of faintness, nausea, vomiting, and distention of the stomach. If you have any of these symptoms that alarm you, if you experience heat in the region of the kidneys, do not wait for worse symptoms. Take Kidney-Wort Tablets without delay.

John M. Ament, Lewis County, Tenn., says: "For 10 years have been afflicted with pain in the back, the result of diseased kidneys. I tried several remedies, from which I received very little benefit. At last I gave Kidney-Wort Tablets a trial, and received immediate and lasting benefit from their use."

The general reading public knows that alcohol in a kidney remedy keeps up the inflammation. Liquid kidney remedies, because of the alcohol they necessarily contain, are never ordered by physicians.
Kidney-Wort Tablets contain no alcohol.
Women of all ages who suffer from backaches, sideaches, headaches, tired feelings, exhaustion, nervousness and general weakness, find in Dr. Pettigill's Kidney-Wort Tablets the true health, strength, and happiness they so earnestly desire.

We are prepared to accept
BURS
for storage.
